

PATIENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Patient Rights

- Right to access to care
- Right to respect and dignity
- Right to privacy and confidentiality
- Right to refusal to treatment
- Right to personal safety and security
- Right to know the identity of individuals providing service to him/her
- Right to information
- Right to communication
- Right to consent
- Right to consultation
- Right to transfer and continuity of care
- Right to hospital rules and regulations
- Right to complain

Patient Responsibilities

- Responsibility for providing accurate and complete information about medical problems, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, pain and other matters relating to their health.
- Responsibility for following the treatment plan recommended by those responsible for their care.
- Responsibility for their actions if they refuse treatment or do not follow the health care team's instructions.
- Responsibility for seeing that their bills are paid as promptly as possible and following hospital rules and regulations. •